SUPPLEMENTARY TARIFF AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE U. S. AND SWEDEN

The United States signed an agreement with Sweden supplementary to the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade. The supplementary agreement provides for a tariff concession by the United States on certain types of boxes.

This concession compensates Sweden for the increase, on December 10, 1957, of the United States rate of duty on spring clothespins. A concession on spring clothespins had been made in 1949 under the General Agreement. The increase in the United States import duty on spring clothespins in 1957 was made pursuant to the escape clause provisions of the Trade Agreements Extension Act of 1951 and to the terms of Article XIX of the General Agreement. It was put into effect to prevent injury to the domestic spring clothespins industry. Article XIX provides that when a country raises the tariff on a product which is the subject of a concession under the General Agreement, that country will consult with the affected countries. This recent agreement, resulting in the granting of a compensatory concession by the United States, is the product of these consultations with Sweden.

The Isbrandtsen project . . .

FLOATING TRADE FAIR

MUCH concern has been expressed both in Government and business circles in recent months concerning America's present export position and the prospects for betterment thereof in the foreseeable future. The consensus of all opinions seems to be that the situation is sufficiently grave to warrant concerted action by both business and Government. There, however, unanimity begins to diverge, for few can agree on just how the matter should be handled.

Back in December, 1959, the Isbrandtsen Mobile Trade Fair was announced as the program of an individual American steamship concern to assist manufacturers of American products to sell abroad. One of the primary aims of the project was to interest firms which had never done so before to enter the foreign markets with their goods. This, of course, in addition to those firms already engaged in foreign commerce of the United States.

Briefly, the Isbrandtsen Mobile Trade Fair offered to exhibit American products in specially-constructed side-opening cargo containers. These aluminum showcases, measuring 20 feet in length by eight feet in width and eight feet in height each house eight exhibits, four on either side of the container back-to-back. When on display the sides of the containers are raised for "walk-around" viewing.

Along with each group is sent an electricity generating power plant to provide lighting for the exhibits.

These containers have been sent 'round-world in groups of eight containers (64 individual exhibits). The eight containers were loaded aboard Isbrandtsen 'Round-World cargo liners in New York and taken to the port of Beirut, Lebanon where they were off-loaded and trucked to a fair site in the center of town. Here the containers were opened amid a county fair atmosphere with bunting, flags, music, etc. A high dignitary of the Lebanese Government, together with the U. S. ambassador officially opened the Mobile Trade Fair and buyers and public generally were permitted to enter the enclosure and view the exhibits. Isbrandtsen's agents were provided with descriptive pamphlets about the exhibiting companies and were ready to accept orders for merchandise which were channelled through Isbrandtsen New York to the individual manufacturer. After the exhibition had been in Beirut for a period of approximately two weeks, the containers were closed again and trucked to the quay where they were loaded aboard another Isbrandtsen vessel and taken to the next port of call, Alexandria, Egypt. Here the whole procedure was duplicated as it was thereafter in Saudi Arabia, Port Sudan, Pakistan, India, Straits Settlement, Hong Kong and Korea before return to New York via West Coast of U. S. and Panama/Puerto Rico.

While the concept of the Mobile Trade Fair dates back to December, 1959, the first group was not sent forward until October, 1960. Then, at a gala affair held at its enormous new pier in Brooklyn, Isbrandtsen launched the first Mobile Trade Fair. United States Secretary of Commerce Frederick H. Mueller keynoted the ocassion by calling the Mobile Trade Fair "king-size salesmanship, a far-sighted approach which will succeed in promoting the sale of Made in U.S.A. products abroad."

This first group, consisting entirely of exhibits of automotive supplies and equipment, went on display in Beirut on November 13, 1960. Crowds of businessmen, buyers, dealers, and the general public swarmed to see these products of American know-how. This success story was repeated in each of the ports around the world at which the trade fair called. Many of the participants were delighted to inform Isbrandtsen that they had concluded such and such a number of sales and/or contracts for dealerships in the countries visited. Many of the exhibitors had been skeptical at the inception of the program as to what, if any, return they could expect. Among these were a number of companies who had never done business theretofore abroad. The best criteria for measuring the success of the program has been the number of companies who originally had to be sold to participate in the first place who later wanted to be sure that they were included in subsequent Mobile Trade Fairs.

The Mobile Trade Fair is an idea and an ideal. The idea was promulgated by Isbrandtsen, an energetic American flag steamship operator which has always felt that the impetus of leadership will often carry their projects to ultimate fruition. The ideal is perhaps more difficult to explain, but it is tied to the principle that Americans cannot readily accept a secondary role in anything, foreign commerce included. America was founded on the pioneering spirit. Not all Americans are ashamed of their humble beginnings or so bloated by success as to have forgotten the tenacious spirit which was always our proud birthright.

It has not been easy to convince many American companies that the export field can offer unlimited and oftentimes untested markets for manufactured items which continually meet a stiffening competitive situation domestically. Like all new things it is suspect for just that reason. And always those hardest to convince are now the ones more completely sold.

The Isbrandtsen Mobile Trade Fair has exploded some tightly held myths. In the forefront of these is the one that American products cannot compete pricewise. Certainly many items made in America are also made abroad. Many foreign made items are cheaper but—and it's a big BUT—the price differential is not always the foremost factor abroad any more than it is here at home. Products with Made in U.S.A. labels have the advantage of not being prototypes, as many of the European articles are. American products have a long history of quality, good workmanship and the latest in technological advances. Another myth revolves around the belief that doing business abroad entails tremendous red tape and documentation. This is more a bogeyman than an actuality and the experts in the field will assure all that there are no in-

Railroads In Foreign Trade

AN increase of 3.3% in the number of cars loaded with revenue freight during the fourth quarter of 1961 compared with the same period in 1960 was estimated by the 13 Regional Shippers Advisory Boards in reports to the Car Service Division of the Association of American Railroads. Based on their estimates, freight carloadings of the 32 principal commodity groups surveyed will be approximately 5,903,115 during the fourth quarter of 1961 compared with 5,715,991 in the fourth quarter of 1960 for the commodities listed. In the estimate, 10 Shippers Advisory Boards predicted increases in carloadings during the fourth quarter of 1961 with three Boards estimating decreases, when compared with the same period last year. The Shippers Advisory Boards in their estimates for the entire United States expect an increase in the fourth quarter of 1961, compared with the same period in 1960, in the loadings of 23 and a decrease in nine of the commodities.

Railroad operating executives in the United States were urged recently to streamline their diesel-electric locomotive schedules to help corral a larger share of the nation's $50-billion annual freight business. George T. Bevan, a motive-power engineer in General Electric's Locomotive and Car Equipment Department in Erie, Pennsylvania, pointed out that almost half of all railroad operating expense is affected by the type, utilization and maintenance of locomotive fleets. Bevan, in a talk during the annual meeting of the Coordinated Mechanical Associations of the railroads, said that continued improvement in locomotive utilization would further help carriers "make money as well as save money." "Maximum efficiency in these areas," Bevan said, "will help to give the customer still better service which, in turn, will attract more business, and will also put more of each revenue dollar in the net earning column." Bevan said that U. S. railroads this year will take in $8.5 billion—or 17% of the total paid for freight transportation—but in the same period will haul 37.5% of the nation's freight. He termed this "a significant demonstration of the efficiency of the steel wheel rolling on the steel rail." On the other hand, the speaker pointed out that the railroads' share of the total freight business has been steadily decreasing. He cited a statement by a national financial magazine that the railroads are currently hauling the same annual tonnage they did in 1916, when industrial production was only one-fifth that of today. Bevan said railroads have made gratifying progress in revising operating practices, and mentioned such advances as Centralized Train Control, train radio, better signaling and communications, and the use of higher horsepower locomotives. He also praised the practice of "pooling" locomotives to keep the units in service a greater share of the time. He added: "These economies can be further improved by arranging locomotive assignments so that units return to a common maintenance point for inspection and repair on a routine schedule. . . ."

Built by the Harbor Department at a cost of $2½ million, the new grain terminal has a 220-foot headhouse and can load ships at the rate of 1300 tons or 43,000 bushels per hour. The terminal has 7000 feet of rail trackage and 320,000 square feet of paved work area. A hydraulic tilt platform is used to unload trucks and a straight unloader for rail cars. Airveyors unload ships at the rate of 150 tons per hour. Storage capacity for the elevator is nearly 1 million bushels. Engineering plans have taken into consideration future expansion to the extent of a 9 million bushel capacity storage facility. Once the plant is in full operation it will handle 10 million bushels of grain annually.

pamper your Orient air cargo, too On Japan Air Lines, your cargo isn't actually watched over by one of JAL's gracious, kimono-clad hostesses. But it is given the same kind of thoughtful attention that characterizes JAL's famous trans-Pacific passenger service. Extra-careful handling and loading assure a safe, sound shipment, whether it's a bulky but sensitive electronic computer packed in the air-conditioned, pressurized compartment of a big DC-7F Freighter, or a tank of tropical fish on a speedy DC-8C jet. It's never "off-loaded" en route, and you get protected trans-shipment, too. So just as Japan Air Lines is the delightful way for you to fly to the Orient, it's also the best way to ship your cargo there. See your cargo agent or freight forwarder.

GRACE TO GET DOLLAR AWARD

J. Peter Grace, president of W. R. Grace & Co., will receive the 1961 Captain Robert Dollar Memorial Award for distinguished service to U. S. foreign trade. The board of directors of the National Foreign Trade Council, as trustees of the Award, unanimously selected Mr. Grace as the recipient of the 24th annual Award.

Long a distinguished spokesman for U. S. international business, Mr. Grace last February issued a pamphlet entitled, "It is Not Too Late in Latin America," urging public support for President Kennedy's program for Latin America which later took form as the Alliance for Progress. In the study he outlined a series of measures to aid Latin America in the fields of industrial and trade development, improved land use, housing, education, public health, and the sharing of scientific advances.

Robert J. Dixson, president, Johnson & Johnson International, and chairman of the 1961 Captain Robert Dollar Memorial Award Committee which nominated Mr. Grace, will present the Award, a gold plaque, on November 1 during the World Trade Dinner, concluding event of the 48th National Foreign Trade Convention, at the Waldorf-Astoria hotel.

COMMUNITY RELATIONS ABROAD

"A conscious effort to earn public acceptance abroad is a vital part of business success overseas," the National Foreign Trade Council has declared in a statement of principles on community relations abroad.

The statement is a declaration on the importance of international community relations by business management representing basic industries throughout the United States. The text was prepared by the NFTC International Public Relations Committee, which is composed of the public relations directors of leading American companies with international branches and subsidiaries.

Community relations abroad is of concern not only to established international companies but also to those newly entered on the international scene, for "the reputation of one affects the reputation of all," the statement said.

WILTON, BRUSSELS, AND VELVET CARPETS AND RUGS

PRESIDENT REQUESTS SUPPLEMENTAL REPORT

The President has deferred action on the Tariff Commission recommendation to increase the duty on Wilton, Brussels, Velvet and similar carpets, rugs, mats and floor coverings classifiable under paragraph 1117(a), Tariff Act of 1930. As a result of the escape clause investigation on imports of these coverings, the Commission recommended that the duty on them should be increased from 21% to 40% ad valorem, whether or not they are valued below or over 40 cents per square foot. Under the escape clause procedure, the President was required to decide by October 2, 1961, what action to take with respect to this recommendation.

On October 1st, he decided to send the report back to the Tariff Commission, with a request that the Commission furnish him with supplemental information, especially on (1) the situation of the domestic carpet and rug industry in 1961, and (2) the competitive effect that domestic machine-tufted carpets and rugs have had on the production of domestic Wilton and velvet carpets and rugs. The Commission has been requested to submit this information by December 1, 1961.

BILLS IN THE CONGRESS

TARIFF CLASSIFICATION STUDY—After it held a number of executive sessions on H.R. 8691 proposing to rearrange existing tariff classification schedules, the Committee on Ways and Means decided to amend it in several respects. But instead of incorporating the amendments in H.R. 8691, the Committee decided to supersede it with a new clean bill, H.R. 9189, which it approved and ordered reported to the House on September 14th. It is understood that the Congress will consider this new bill next year. In the meantime, the Tariff Commission is preparing supplemental reports carrying out certain representations made to the Committee.

CUBA—By a voice vote, the House of Representatives passed H.R. 8465 on September 15, 1961. The purpose of this bill is to stop all imports into the United States from Cuba and all exports from the United States to Cuba by prohibiting any sale or purchase of such goods in the United States. It is not known whether the Senate will take any action on this bill.

LEAD AND ZINC—The Committee on Ways and Means has also ordered reported to the House H.R. 5193 proposing to impose import taxes on lead and zinc. A similar bill, S. 1747, was reported to the Senate by its Committee on Interior and Insular Affairs, but was sent back to the Committee on Finance because it is a revenue measure.

MARKINGS ON GOLD AND SILVER ARTICLES—The Senate has passed S. 1186 providing that when a manufacturer or importer marks his product so as to show the fineness or quality of the gold, silver, or alloy used in it, the quality mark must be accompanied by the trademark or the name of the manufacturer or importer. This bill is now before the House, to which it was favorably reported by the Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce on September 15.

BICYCLES—On September 20th, the Committee on Ways and Means approved H.R. 7345. The sponsors of this bill state its purpose is to prevent certain middle weight bicycles from being entered as lightweight bicycles which are subject to a more favorable rate of duty.

GENERAL DEVELOPMENTS

DUAL RATES—The Congress has passed and sent to the President H.R. 6775. This bill provides clearly stated statutory authority for the dual rates or exclusive patronage contracts offered to shippers and importers by steamship conferences. The legality of this system has been clouded since 1958, when the U. S. Supreme Court held in Federal Maritime Board v. Isbrandtsen that contract rates are illegal in most circumstances. In view of the fact that the Justice Department strongly opposed certain provisions of this bill, it is possible that the President may veto it. Since the 1958 decision, interim legislation has authorized continuation of any existing dual contract arrangements.

WALNUTS—The U. S. Department of Agriculture proposes to promulgate new regulations that will govern the grade, size, quality, and maturity of walnuts imported into the United States. This action is being taken pursuant to the authority in Section 8e of the Agricultural Adjustment Act, which was recently amended to include walnuts. Under the proposed standards, imported walnuts in the shell must be of a quality equal to or better than U. S. No. 3 and "baby" size prescribed in United States Standards for Walnuts in the Shell, effective September 1, 1960; and shelled walnuts must be equal to or better than U. S. Commercial Grade prescribed in United States Standards for Shelled Walnuts, effective January 25, 1959. Views regarding this proposal may be submitted not later than October 16, 1961, to the Fruit and Vegetable Division, Agricultural Marketing Service, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C.

SUSPICION OF DUMPING NOTICE—Appraisement of portland cement from Yugoslavia is being withheld as of September 23, 1961, because the Bureau of Customs suspects that it is sold to the United States at less than fair value. (NOTE: Effective July 10, 1961, the Bureau amended its Regulations to provide that the name of the complainant will be included in a formal notice of suspicion of dumping, unless the complainant advises the Bureau in writing that publication of his name would be injurious to him. In accordance with this provision, the Bureau lists the 12 domestic cement manufacturers on whose behalf a Washington law firm, which is also named, filed the complaint in this case, the first time such names have been published.)

NO SALES AT LESS THAN FAIR VALUE—After investigating complaints of dumping, the Treasury Department has determined that Christmas tree ornaments from Poland are not being sold to the United States at less than fair value.

When Morgan Guaranty Trust Company of New York was formed in 1959, Mr. Alexander became chairman of the board and chief executive officer. LICENSING OF INDEPENDENT OCEAN FREIGHT FORWARDERS

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the first section of the Shipping Act, 1916 (46 U.S.C. 801), is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraphs:

"The term 'carrying on the business of forwarding' means the dispatching of shipments by any person on behalf of others, by ocean-going common carriers in commerce from the United States, its Territories, or possessions to foreign countries, or between the United States and its Territories or possessions, or between such Territories and possessions, and handling the formalities incident to such shipments.

"An 'independent ocean freight forwarder' is a person carrying on the business of forwarding for a consideration who is not a shipper or consignee or a seller or purchaser of shipments to foreign countries, nor has any benefical interest therein, nor directly or indirectly controls or is controlled by such shipper or consignee or by any person having such a beneficial interest."

Sec. 2. The Shipping Act, 1916, is further amended by redesignating section 44 as section 45, and inserting immediately after section 43 the following new section:

"Sec. 44. (a) No person shall engage in carrying on the business of forwarding as defined in this Act unless such person holds a license issued by the Federal Maritime Commission to engage in such business: Provided, however, That a person whose primary business is the sale of merchandise may dispatch shipments of such merchandise without a license.

"(b) A forwarder's license shall be issued to any qualified applicant therefor if it is found by the Commission that the applicant is, or will be, an independent ocean freight forwarder as defined in this Act and is fit, willing, and able properly to carry on the business of forwarding and to conform to the provisions of this Act and the requirements, rules, and regulations of the Commission issued thereunder, and that the proposed forwarding business is, or will be, consistent with the national maritime policies declared in the Merchant Marine Act, 1936; otherwise such applications shall be denied. Any independent ocean freight forwarder who, on the effective date of this Act, is carrying on the business of forwarding under a registration number issued by the Commission may continue such business for a period of one hundred and twenty days thereafter without a license, and if application for such license is made within such period, such forwarder may, under such regulations as the Commission shall prescribe, continue such business until otherwise ordered by the Commission.

"(c) The Commission shall prescribe reasonable rules and regulations to be observed by independent ocean freight forwarders and no such license shall be issued or remain in force unless such forwarder shall have furnished a bond or other security approved by the Commission in such form and amount as in the opinion of the Commission will insure financial responsibility and the supply of the services in accordance with contracts, agreements, or arrangements therefor.

"(d) Licenses shall be effective from the date specified therein, and shall remain in effect until suspended or terminated as herein provided. Any such license may, upon application of the holder thereof, in the discretion of the Commission, be amended or revoked, in whole or in part, or may upon complaint, or on the Commission's own initiative, after notice and hearing, be suspended or revoked for willful failure to comply with any provision of this Act, or with any lawful order, rule, or regulation of the Commission promulgated thereunder.

"(e) A common carrier by water may compensate a person carrying on the business of forwarding to the extent of the value rendered such carrier in connection with any shipment dispatched on behalf of others when, and only when, such person is licensed hereunder and has performed with respect to such shipment the solicitation and securing of the cargo for the ship or the booking of, or otherwise arranging for space for, such cargo, and at least two of the following services:

"(1) The coordination of the movement of the cargo to shipside;

"(2) The preparation and processing of the ocean bill of lading;

"(3) The preparation and processing of dock receipts or delivery orders;

"(4) The preparation and processing of consular documents or export declarations;

"(5) The payment of the ocean freight charges on such shipments:

Provided, however, That where a common carrier by water has paid, or has incurred an obligation to pay, either to an ocean freight broker or freight forwarder, separate compensation for the solicitation or securing of cargo for the ship or the booking of, or otherwise arranging for space for, such cargo, then such carrier shall not be obligated to pay additional compensation for any other forwarding services rendered on the same cargo. Before any such compensation is paid to or received by any person carrying on the business of forwarding, such person shall, if he is qualified under the provisions of this paragraph to receive such compensation, certify in writing to the common carrier by water by which the shipment was dispatched that he is licensed by the Federal Maritime Commission as an independent ocean freight forwarder and that he performed the above specified services with respect to such shipment. Such carrier shall be entitled to rely on such certification unless it knows that the certification is incorrect."

CONGO EASES IMPORT LICENSING RESTRICTIONS

The Republic of the Congo will increase its rate of import licensing substantially, primarily because of a recent U. S. contribution, of about $12.9 million for purchase of U. S. goods, to the UN Fund for the Congo. Emphasis will continue to be given to commodities essential to economic stability, but, effective this month, the Licensing Office in Leopoldville is prepared to consider a variety of consumer goods. The Licensing Office is publishing a list as a guide for importers applying for licenses against the $12.9 million for purchase of U. S. goods.

SCRIVEN HEAD OF BUREAU OF INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS OPERATIONS

Secretary of Commerce Luther H. Hodges administered the oath of office to L. Edward Scriven as Director of the Commerce Department's newly created Bureau of International Business Operations.

A former well-known international management consultant to industry, business and government, Scriven has served for the last four months as Director of the Commerce Department's Office of International Trade Fairs. He will continue to direct the Trade Fairs Program in addition to assuming his new responsibilities.

11th Revised List of Independent

FOREIGN FREIGHT FORWARDERS

Registered with

FEDERAL MARITIME BOARD

under General Order No. 72

Compiled, published and distributed in cooperation with CUSTOMS BROKERS & FORWARDERS ASSOCIATION OF AMERICA, INC.

Listed firms are NOT also engaged in business as common carriers, manufacturers, exporters, export traders, manufacturer's agents, resident buyers, commission merchants, etc.

We quote below two paragraphs from General Order No. 72, covering the definition of those required to register, and the qualifications for the collection of brokerage.

§44.1 DEFINITION. A freight forwarder is any person engaged in the business of dispatching shipments on behalf of other persons, for a consideration, by oceangoing vessels in commerce from the United States, its territories or possessions to foreign countries, or between the United States and its territories or possessions, or between such territories and possessions; and of handling the formalities incident to such shipments. This definition includes independent freight forwarders, common carriers, manufacturers, exporters, export traders, manufacturers' agents, resident buyers, commission merchants, and other persons when they engage for and on behalf of any person other than themselves, in return for a consideration, money or otherwise, in the aforementioned activity.

§44.13 BROKERAGE. No forwarder, after the date on which he is required to register, shall accept brokerage from ocean carriers unless and until such forwarder has been assigned a registration number pursuant to these rules. Registration shall not entitle a forwarder to collect brokerage from a common carrier by water in cases where payment thereof would constitute a rebate—i. e., where the forwarder is a shipper or consignee or is the seller or purchaser of the shipment, or has any beneficial interest therein or where the forwarder directly or indirectly controls or is controlled by the shipper or consignee, or by any person having a beneficial interest in the shipment. A forwarder shall not share any part of the brokerage received from a common carrier by water with a shipper or consignee. No forwarder shall demand or accept brokerage during the period his registration number is under suspension or after his registration number has been cancelled pursuant to these rules.

For ease of identification and classification, independent foreign freight forwarders are persons engaged in the business of dispatching shipments on behalf of other persons, and who do not have an interest in the purchase or sale of the goods, and who are not owned or controlled directly or indirectly by the shipper or consignee, and who are not common carriers.

In order to ascertain which of the registrants were independent foreign freight forwarders to be included in this list, the following procedure was adopted:

1. With the permission of the Federal Maritime Board, the original applications for registration were examined.
2. Names have been checked with the master file of Customs Brokers & Forwarders Association of America, Inc.
3. Names have been checked with listings published in the annual CUSTOM HOUSE GUIDE over a period of years.

The Customs Brokers & Forwarders Association of America, Inc. wishes it to be known that the inclusion of firms on this list of independent foreign freight forwarders does not automatically qualify such firms for membership in their Association. All applicants must be thoroughly investigated, and meet the stringent requirements of the By-Laws and code of ethics, before being eligible.

The CBFAA and the publisher have used all possible means to assure accuracy in the preparation of the list. It is possible that there may be some errors and omissions for which the CBFAA and the publisher can assume no responsibility except to make corrections brought to his attention prior to the publication of a revised list.

Any independent forwarder who has been omitted from this list, and feels that he is qualified to be included may, on presentation of proper information, be considered for inclusion in future revisions of this list.

THE RIGHT COMBINATION

Successfully servicing import and export shipments brings into play many things. For example, a thorough knowledge of government regulations . . . or, the safest method of transporting a particular consignment. Still another might be time-saving know-how when speed is of the essence. Years of experience have developed our ability to come up with "the right combination" every time. Why not avail your firm of this "plus value" when you need our kind of services.

If your business is Import-Export talk to the people at Chase Manhattan

The intricacies of world trade are the special province of Senior Vice President William S. DuBois.

A banker since 1925, he has concentrated on the financing and servicing of imports and exports since 1930.

To the domestic banker and his customers engaged in world trade William S. DuBois' long familiarity with commodities and key people in the commodity markets can be extremely helpful. So, too, can Chase Manhattan's many overseas branches and the more than 51,000 correspondents and their branches around the world that implement the financial planning programmed by William DuBois and his International Department Staff at Chase Manhattan's New York headquarters.

Why not talk to the people at Chase Manhattan about your import-export needs. Simply write to: International Department, The Chase Manhattan Bank, 1 Chase Manhattan Plaza, New York 15, or if urgency requires it, telephone LL 2-2222.

Section 16.3 is amended by adding the following new paragraph "(d)" to read:

(d) The internal revenue taxes imposed on imported tobacco materials, tobacco products, cigarette papers, and cigarette tubes under 26 U.S.C. 5701 or 7652 are determined in accordance with 26 U.S.C. 5703 at the time of removal; that is, on the quantity removed from customs custody under the entry or withdrawal for consumption. The duties unlike those on alcoholic beverages, do not necessarily apply only to such quantities. Liquidation of warehouse or rewarehouse entries of such articles shall be suspended until all such merchandise covered by the entry has been accounted for within the bonded period by withdrawal, abandonment, or destruction, or until the bonded period has expired if the merchandise has not been so accounted for before that time. The liability for duty or tax with respect to any such articles withdrawn for transportation and delivered into customs custody at the port of destination shall be determined by a liquidation of the rewarehouse entry made in the district where the merchandise is withdrawn for consumption or exportation. (Secs. 1 (Pars. 813, 1101, 1104), 505, 46 Stat. 640, as amended, 646, as amended, 647, 732, sec. 202, 68A, Stat. 707, as amended; 19 U.S.C. 1001 (Pars. 813 1101, 1104), 1505, 26 U.S.C. 5703.)

Section 19.16(a) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new sentences:

When tax-paid cigars are returned to the manufacturing department of a cigar manufacturing warehouse from which withdrawn for the purposes in accordance with section 275.172 of the regulations of the Internal Revenue Service (26 CFR 275.172), they shall be properly accounted for and shall not be released therefrom for consumption except upon compliance with all regulations applicable to such release. A record of all such cigars so returned to the manufacturing department shall be kept by customs along with a copy of the schedule on Internal Revenue Form 3069. The cigars so returned shall be verified by the customs officer against the schedule which shall be certified by him as to the cigars returned, and the original and one copy returned to the taxpayer who returned the cigars.

Section 19.16(b) is amended by deleting the last sentence.

Section 19.16(g) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new sentences:

Upon withdrawal (release) of cigars subject to internal revenue tax for consumption, such tax as is applicable shall be paid to customs by return, as provided in regulations of the Internal Revenue Service (26 CFR Part 275), which return shall be made on an appropriately modified customs Form 7505. One return shall cover all cigars withdrawn (released) on any one day, and such return shall be filed on the first business day after the date of withdrawal. The taxes covered by the return shall be secured by the Proprietor's Manufacturing Warehouse Bond, customs Form 3583. One copy of the return on Form 7505 shall be returned to the taxpayer, one copy shall be retained by customs, and one copy shall be marked "For Internal Revenue Purposes" and shall be so used. In such case, Form 7505 shall be prepared to show the statement for tax purposes (26 CFR 275.81) and shall be signed by the taxpayer or his authorized agent under whose bond release is made but shall not be required to show any other information such as is required for duty purposes under section 8.37 of these regulations. When accepted, such a return shall be treated as an entry and liquidated upon payment of the taxes on the cigars and charges, if any.

Section 24.36, paragraph(e), is amended by substituting the following material for that part of paragraph (e) preceding subparagraph(1):

(e) In any instance in which a refund of an alcohol or tobacco tax is not of a type covered by paragraph (d) of this section the following procedure shall apply:

So that the transfer from the Internal Revenue Service to collectors of customs of functions for collection of taxes on imported tobacco materials, tobacco products, cigarette papers and tubes will be made without interruption, these changes shall become effective on the effective date of Part 275, Importation of Tobacco Materials, Tobacco Products, and Cigarette Papers and Tubes, of the regulations of the Internal Revenue Service (October 1, 1961). [T.D. 55472]

Public Law 87-132, 87th Congress, approved August 10, 1961, further amended paragraph 1798(c)(2), Tariff Act of 1930; and is effective as to persons arriving in the United States on or after September 9, 1961, and before July 1, 1963. It reduces the basic $200 exemption to $100, except with respect to the Virgin Islands of the United States, and suspends the application of the additional $300 exemption during the period indicated. It makes no change in the provision that the basic exemption of $100 ($200 in the case of the Virgin Islands) may be claimed not more than once every 30 days. No change is made respecting the limitations on alcoholic beverages and cigars.

"(B) $300 in addition, if such person arrives on or after July 1, 1963, and he has remained beyond the territorial limits of the United States for a period of not less than twelve days and has not claimed an exemption under this subdivision (B) within the six months immediately preceding his arrival. Tariff Act of 1930, paragraph 1798(c)(2), as amended (19 U.S.C. 1201 (par. 1798(c)(2).)

A resident returning directly or indirectly from the Virgin Islands of the United States is still entitled to a $200 exemption, but not more than $100 of the exemption shall be applied to articles acquired elsewhere than in the Virgin Islands of the United States. Articles acquired by the resident in the Virgin Islands of the United States up to the amount allowed are also exempt, during the specified period, from the 48-hour absence requirement.

The following regulations are prescribed during the effective period of Public Law 87-132 and so much of sections 10.17, 10.19, 10.20, Customs Regulations, and any other provisions inconsistent or in conflict therewith are hereby suspended:

AIR COMMERCE REGULATIONS—CUSTOMS REGULATIONS AMENDED

There is in existence at various points of departure outside the United States an approved practice of preclearing the crew, passengers, and their baggage, destined to arrive on an aircraft at a point in an area of the United States. This preclearance in foreign territory is, of course, only tentative and must be ratified by the customs officers at the place of arrival in the United States. With the increase of passenger preclearance operations the incidence of diversions from scheduled or intended airports of arrival due to weather or other operational necessity has increased.

Many documents for customs purposes arrive with the inbound aircraft at the place of diversion. However, other necessary documents for customes purposes must be dispatched from the customs preclearance office to the port of arrival. In the case of a diversion of the aircraft from the scheduled or intended port of arrival, which is known to the customs preclearance office, to another port of arrival, it is necessary that both the customs preclearance office and the scheduled or intended port of arrival be advised of the port at which the aircraft actually arrived.

Accordingly, to take effect November 1, 1961, the following amendment of section 6.2 is made:

Section 6.2(g) is amended by inserting between the second and third sentences a new sentence to read:

When an aircraft carrying precleared crew, passengers and baggage or merchandise lands for any reason at an airport in the United States other than the scheduled or intended port of arrival, written notice must be received from the airline representative or aircraft commander both at the customs office at the place of preclearance and at or for the place of intended landing within seven days, unless notice is otherwise given in accordance with a procedure previously agreed to with the carrier by the collector of customs involved. ABSOLUTE QUOTA ON CERTAIN COTTON PRODUCTS

Presidential Proclamation No. 3428, dated September 11, 1961, establishes an absolute quota of 1,000 pounds on the quantity of cotton products, except cotton wastes, produced in any stage preceding the spinning into yarn, including such products produced in any foreign trade zone, which may be entered for consumption or withdrawn from warehouse for consumption during the 12-month period beginning September 11, 1961, and in each subsequent yearly period beginning September 11.

In order to correct an imbalance in the audit workload which has developed over the years in some comptroller districts, resulting primarily from changes in volume of customs activity, it is deemed necessary to realign the audit responsibilities of certain comptroller districts.

Therefore, the following changes are hereby made in the customs field organization, effective September 1, 1961:

The customs collection districts of Connecticut, St. Lawrence, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands, presently operating under the audit jurisdiction of the New York comptroller's office, are hereby transferred to the comptroller districts indicated in the amendment below.

Section 1.4 is amended by deleting from the listing under the comptroller of customs, New York, New York, the following:

No. 6. Connecticut.
No. 7. St. Lawrence.
No. 49. Puerto Rico.
No. 51. Virgin Islands.

Section 1.4 is further amended by adding to the listings under the comptrollers of customs for Boston, Massachusetts, and Baltimore, Maryland, the following:

Comptroller of Customs, Boston, Massachusetts
No. 6. Connecticut.
No. 7. St. Lawrence.
Comptroller of Customs, Baltimore, Maryland
No. 49. Puerto Rico.
No. 51. Virgin Islands.

(R.S. 161, as amended 251, sec. 624, 46 Stat. 759; 5 U.S.C. 22, 19 U.S.C. 66, 1624). [T.D. 55457.]

WHITE OR IRISH POTATOES, OTHER THAN CERTIFIED SEED

The tariff-rate quota for white or Irish potatoes, other than certified seed, pursuant to Item 771 (second), Part I, Schedule XX of the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade, as modified (T.D.'s 51802 and 54406), for the 12-month period beginning September 15, 1961, is 600,000 bushels of 60 pounds each.

The estimate of the production of white or Irish potatoes, including seed potatoes, in the United States for the calendar year 1961, made by the United States Department of Agriculture as of September 1, 1961, was 464,065,000 bushels.

In accordance with the third proviso to the aforesaid Item 771, as modified, the 600,000 bushels and the 1,000,000 bushels not increased, because the estimated production is greater than 350,000,000 bushels. [T.D. 55478.]

COMMENTS ON NEW FORWARDER LEGISLATION

The forwarders bill S. 1368 has now become Public Law 87-254. This law supersedes General Order 72 with all its amendments and revisions. The Federal Maritime Commission (F. M. C.) advises that a notice of cancellation of G. O. 72 will probably be issued shortly. The F. M. C. further advises that application forms for licensing and regulations governing forwarders licensed under the law are in process of preparation, and will be published in the Federal Register. All registered forwarders will receive copies when available.

We have requested that the F. M. C. confer with representatives of all forwarding associations before issuing the new regulations. If this request is granted, it is our intention to have invitations extended to all members of the CBFAA National Advisory Committee who wish to attend.

U. S. TARIFF COMMISSION

Hearings • Investigations • Surveys • Reports • Etc.

UNMANUFACTURED LEAD AND ZINC

The U. S. Tariff Commission submitted to the President its second periodic report on the developments in the trade in unmanufactured lead and zinc since the "escape clause" action, on October 1, 1958, which resulted in the imposition of import quotas on unmanufactured lead and zinc. This report was made pursuant to paragraph 1 of Executive Order 10401 of October 14, 1952, which order prescribes procedures for the periodic review of escape-clause actions. Such review is limited to the determination of whether a concession that has been modified or withdrawn can be restored in whole or in part without causing or threatening serious injury to the domestic industry concerned.

In submitting this report, the Commission advised the President that the conditions of competition between imported and domestic unmanufactured lead and zinc had not so changed as to warrant the institution of a formal investigation under the provisions of paragraph 2 of Executive Order 10401. This means that, in the Commission's view, the developments in the trade in unmanufactured lead and zinc do not warrant a formal inquiry into the question of whether the existing restrictions on the imports of unmanufactured lead and zinc could be relaxed without resulting in serious injury to the domestic industry concerned.

TUNG OIL AND TUNG NUTS

Notice of Supplemental Investigation and Date of Hearing

At the request of the President, the United States Tariff Commission, on the 21st day of September, 1961, instituted an investigation under section 22(d) of the Agricultural Adjustment Act, as amended (7 U.S.C. 624(d)) supplemental to U. S. Tariff Commission Investigation No. 22-23, to determine whether the circumstances requiring Proclamation No. 3378 of October 27, 1960 (3 CFR, 1960 Supp., p. 44) imposing import quotas on TUNG OIL AND TUNG NUTS no longer exist so that the said Proclamation may therefore be terminated. Under the terms of Proclamation No. 3378, imports of tung oil and tung nuts will be under quota restriction through October 31, 1963.

Hearing. A public hearing in connection with this supplemental investigation will be held in the Tariff Commission's Hearing Room, Tariff Commission Building, 8th and E Streets, N.W., Washington, D. C., beginning at 10 a.m., E.D.S.T., on October 24, 1961. Interested parties desiring to appear and to be heard at the public hearing should notify the Secretary of the Commission, in writing, at its offices in Washington, D. C., at least three days in advance of the date set for the hearing.
